4th Sunday of Advent

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel” arr, Bussick

*Lighting of the Advent Candles: Stanek Family

Today is the fourth Sunday of Advent. Advent means coming. We light these candles as a sign of the coming light of Christ.

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of the messenger who announces peace; who brings good news, who announces salvation.

And you, O Bethlehem: from you shall come the promised one, whose reign shall extend to the ends of the earth. Sing aloud, O people, and shout for joy!

The Lord our God is in our midst.

*OPENING PRAYER

*HYMN “People, Look East” # 105

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of the future, you are coming in power to bring all nations under your rule. We confess that we have not expected your kingdom, for we live casual lives, ignoring your promised judgment. We accept lies as truth, exploit neighbors, abuse the earth, and refuse your justice and peace. In your mercy, forgive us. Grant us wisdom to welcome your way, and to seek things that will endure when Christ comes to judge the world.

*APOSTLES’ CREED

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, is seated at the right hand of the Father, and will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Our offerings are a sign of gratitude. Let us join together and sing our praise to God from whom all blessings flow.

To feel “blue” means to feel sad, downcast, or melancholy. If you have experienced a loss or a tragedy, or if you simply find the holiday season difficult to get through, Pastor Hilary will be leading an informal Blue Christmas/Longest Night prayer service on Sunday, December 22nd at 1:30 PM at the church. Please feel free to invite others who may find this service helpful.

If you can't make the service (or don't feel up to being with others), you may pick up a “Blue Christmas prayers to-go” resource outside the Pastor's office. Please see Pastor Hilary for more details.
